1. Former colonel Hans Ulrich Rudol arrived in West Germany on 31 December 1957 on a business trip from his office in Venezuela. He intended to return on 6 February 1958, but the political disturbances in Venezuela led him to stay in Europe until the situation had clarified. He was planning a trip to Egypt before his return.
2. In West Germany, Rudol dealt with a number of firms, including Fichtel und Sachs, Frankfurt/Main, concerning ball bearings; Ruthofswelt, Wiesbaden, concerning ship construction; and Siemens AG, the division concerned with electric hospital equipment.
